Centenary Celebration at Ennis Garda Station.

The first Civic Guards arrived in Clare on October 7th 1922. On the 7th October 2022 Chief Superintendent Seán Colleran and the officers in the Clare Division re-enacted this event and marched in through the gates of Ennis Garda Station on the 7th October 2022. The officers of the Clare Division marched with the band of An Garda Síochána and the Garda Ceremonial Unit. Chief Superintendent Colleran presented a wreath to mark the occasion.

A memorial Plaque was unveiled by Deputy Commissioner Ann Marie Mc Mahon, who took great pride in performing this duty being a Clare person. Present for the ceremony was the Southern Assistant Commissioner, Eileen Foster.

Our Little Blue Heros and their families were reporting for duty and the Little Blue Heros were presented with a Centenary Coin by Deputy Commissioner Mc Mahon.

This was a splendid occasion where the public came to the station and joined An Garda Síochána in celebration of the Centenary.

After smiling for photographs all serving Members/ Garda Staff, retired Members/Garda Staff and their families marched to Glór where Centenary Medals and Coins were presented. Sergeant John Reynolds PHD gave a presentation on the history of An Garda Síochána which incorporated the influence of Clare people who were involved in An Garda Síochána from the outset.
