Re/ Our Client: [REDACTED]
Zoning of land for residential purposes.

Dear Sirs,

Our client's lands are identified on the attached map and thereon coloured yellow and marked "X". Our client is actively farming these lands and they are vital to him for his farming enterprise as they are his only lands adjacent to his house. He has other lands and has to move stock back to these lands at the time of calving and so. In the circumstances, please ensure that these lands are excluded from residential zoning.
